

SENATE PASSES THE HOUSE MEASURE FOR PACKER REGULATION

This Action Comes After the Senate Had Voted Down the Bill Reported by the Agriculture Committee—Kenyon Amendment
Requires Uniform Methods of Accounting

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 17.—The senate today passed the house packer regulation bill with minor amendments. The vote was 45 to 21 with the measure now going to conference.

Passage of the house bill came after the senate had voted down the bill reported by its agriculture committee and a measure offered by Senator Sterling, Republican, South Dakota. The house bill provides for regulation of the meat packers of the country by the secretary of agriculture. The agriculture committee bill which provided for regulation by a livestock commissioner was rejected yesterday and today was defeated again 34 to 41. The Sterling bill with provisions similar to the committee measure except for regulation by the federal trade commission, went down to defeat 33 to 31.

ILLINOIS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IS THRU WITH TOUR

Party Looking Over
Lake to Gulf Waterway Completes Trip

(By The Associated Press)
PEORIA, June 17.—Dropping down the navigable Illinois river from La Salle, the Illinois Chamber of Commerce Waterway party brought its two day tour to a close tonight in Peoria. Here it heard James E. Smith of St. Louis, vice president of the Mississippi Valley association plead for rapid completion of the Illinois Waterway linking the Great Lakes with the Gulf. Earlier in the day the tourists were told by the chief of the state waterway division that high prices were delaying the project. Mr. Smith brought to tonight's meeting the sentiment of Mississippi Valley Waterway promoters that Illinois could gain more by eliminating delay and pushing its work thru than any other state that might result from decline of material and labor costs. The Illinois Waterway was particularly needed now in the struggle for foreign trade Mr. Smith declared.

Transportation Possibilities
The Illinois River south of La Salle afforded the waterway tourists a splendid view of the transportation possibilities, the weather being ideal. Dredging to put this part of the river on the same basis as the upper part is needed, government engineers on board the federal engineer boat Comanche said today. They estimated the cost, to be borne by the federal government, at a million dollars. Tonight's meeting was under the auspices of the Peoria Association of Commerce.

The waterway visitors then scattered to their homes over the state, the Chicagoans coming back by special train. Railroad are still practicing unfair competition against the waterways. Colonel Harry Burgess of Rock Island, United States army district engineer for the upper Mississippi and Ohio told the Illinois waterway conference here tonight. A vital need of the waterways, he added, is interesting capital in establishment of lines. He advocated placing water freight rates under government control.

The Illinois Chamber of Commerce was asked to make waterways one of its major activities and to name a sailing waterway committee in resolutions adopted by today's conference. The Peoria meeting, with 400 present was the largest of the trip.

BIG FIVE PACKERS ARE CONDEMNED BY ORGANIZED LABOR

American Federation of Labor Will Support Employees

(By The Associated Press)
DENVER, Colo., June 17.—The American Federation of Labor in convention today unanimously pledged their support to packing house workers in their fight against further wage reductions. The "big five" packers were condemned for attempting almost a million workers and their dependents to a degrading state of poverty with all its attendant deprivations. And cause an "unfortunate condition that because of its far-reaching results will impede the progress of the nation."

The executive council was instructed to leave nothing undone to aid to the utmost the workers in the packing industry. After declaring the packers were again taking advantage of business depression and unemployment to reduce the wages of workers the resolution said: "The workers in the packing industry are threatened with a recurrence of pre-war conditions and an effort is made to lure them into joining so-called company unions which in reality are for the company only, established, managed and controlled by the packers who hypocritically are proclaiming that they are bringing industrial democracy to the workers, a democracy with a string tied to it."

Send Copies to Officials
Copies were ordered submitted to President Harding, Secretaries Davis, Hoover, and Wallace and Senator Kenyon and other legislative representatives interested in the packing industry and the packers.

In making an appeal for organized labor to keep up its fight to free Thomas Mooney and Warren K. Billings, convicted in connection with the San Francisco "preparation day bomb plot," John Mooney told the convention these men were kept in prison by a criminal conspiracy on the part of the state.

The speaker, a brother of Thomas, said the chamber of commerce in San Francisco had "encouraged this conspiracy." He also mentioned two United States senators, one of whom he accused of having contributed one thousand dollars "in blood money" to aid the conspiracy.

The other he said got ten thousand dollars for coercing a witness. Mr. Mooney said that when his brother comes out of prison he will again take his place in the ranks of organized labor. He declared that Billings "is undergoing cruel and inhuman torture" in prison in California and "is not allowed to see a visitor or friend."

Lewis Maintains Silence
Interest in whether John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers would oppose President Samuel Gompers for re-election continued at high pitch today.

Lewis continued to maintain silence but it was learned that he had established headquarters at a hotel where representatives of the mine workers were gathering. Practically all the executive board members of the organization were reported to be in the city. Lewis boomers were active thru the day canvassing the various delegations but up to tonight owing to the strict secrecy being maintained it was impossible to get any accurate estimate as to their probable voting strength.

That the mine workers delegation is split on the candidacy of Lewis was leaked tonight when Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois district of mine workers announced that he would not support the miners' chief. He also declared that two other delegates would cast their votes against him if he decided to run.

An interesting sidelight on the election developed today with the arrival of J. B. Clendenist of Newport News, Va., representing the Virginia State Federation. He said he had been sent by his federation to cast its single vote for Mr. Gompers.

The Virginia Federation, he said, decided not to send a delegate because of the expense but changed its attitude when newspaper reports reached the organization's officials that Gompers might be opposed.

SCOUT TROOP FOUR GOES TO CAMP SOON

C. F. Ehrie has been in Louisville all the past week attending the national T. P. A. convention as one of the Illinois delegates. Mr. Ehrie will return in time to go with the Scouts of Troop 4, of which he is master, to the camp on Merced Bay. The boys are to leave the Ehrie wholesale plant about 8 o'clock Monday morning in auto trucks. Mr. Ehrie has secured the assistance of Secy. Finley of the Y. M. C. A., and he will have charge of all the games, sports and Bible hour.

The Scout master in a letter to the boys and their parents assures them that he will do everything in his power to give the boys a good time and see that they are carefully watched especially in the water. Naturally members of Troop 4 are anticipating the coming week with a great deal of pleasure.

Senators Become Personal In Debate

SPRINGFIELD, June 17.—Illinois' dry laws will not be enforced by a prohibition commissioner during the next two years. The senate decided this question by a vote of 29 to 15 today when it killed Senator Wheeler's bill creating the office.

Supporters of Attorney General Brundage in his political war with the state administration combined with Senate wets defeated the bill. "You're a fourthouser, the biggest piece of bunk you ever represented a district in Illinois," shouted Senator Clark of Chicago in a bitter attack upon Senator Wheeler whom he had charged with trying to create a job for either himself or F. Scott McBride of the Anti-Saloon League. Senator Clark stood in front of Senator Wheeler's desk and pounded it with his fist as he made his speech against the bill. "I don't care what you think of me and I don't need you to tell me how to represent my constituents," replied Senator Wheeler. "I'm amply able to take care of myself in any manner at any time or any place and don't you forget that."

Enforcement of the liquor laws remains in the hands of the attorney general and state's attorneys as a result of the senate's action on the Wheeler bill.

BELIEVES MACHINE GUNS WERE TO BE USED UNLAWFULLY

This is Opinion of Assistant
U. S. Attorney General

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 17.—Assistant United States Attorney Gross tonight asserted that circumstances surrounding discovery of nearly five hundred machine guns aboard the Steamer East Side at Hoboken last Tuesday indicated they were intended for use against a friendly nation and that therefore their presence was unlawful.

Mr. Gross, by direction of Attorney General Daugherty today assumed charge of the investigation now being conducted by three federal agencies into ownership of the munitions. Reports had reached government agents that the arms were intended for delivery in Ireland.

Mr. Gross said a careful investigation would be made and if the facts warranted they would be put before the proper tribunal. Mr. Gross said special agents of the department of justice are seeking a chief engineer alleged to have come to the East Side shortly before the munitions were smuggled aboard and after refusing to take the ship out disappeared. The excuse that the boat was not in proper condition which the engineer officer is alleged to have offered for not sailing would be charged against him.

His suspicions are aroused and the raid by custom men followed last Tuesday.

RESIGNATION OF JOHNSON TENDERED

Utilities Secretary Hands Resignation to Small Following Charges—Governor Has Not Acted on It.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 17.—Julius Johnson of Moline today tendered his resignation as secretary of the state public utilities commission to Governor Small shortly after the governor in a message to the house of representatives said that an investigation would be made of charges by Representative MacNeil, Democrat, Olney, that Johnson had offered to trade a favorable decision in a utility rate case in which MacNeil was interested for votes on the civil service and tax commission bills.

No action on Johnson's resignation had been taken, Governor Small said late today. Representative MacNeil repeated his charges before Governor Small today in the presence of Chairman Smith and Commissioner Lindley of the commission. Representative Devine, minority leader and Representatives Barber and Mauker, Democrats and Searcy, Republican.

A thorough investigation will be made the governor said before action is taken on Johnson's resignation.

GENERAL MARCH TO RETIRE FROM ACTIVE SERVICE

Will be Succeeded by Pershing July 1; Will Go to Europe

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 17.—Major-General Peyton C. March, chief of staff of the army will retire on November 1. He will be succeeded by General Pershing on July 1 and will go on leave at that time until his retirement takes effect, Secretary Weeks announced today.

General March will go to Europe after his retirement it is understood to write on military subjects involved in the world war. His requests for retirement was made by letter to Secretary Weeks June 14 and approved today.

On that day General March concluded 37 years service in the army.

"I cannot sever my active connection with the war department," he wrote Secretary Weeks, "without expressing my appreciation of the unfailing consideration you have accorded me personally; and in the performance of my duties as chief of staff."

In reply Secretary Weeks said "I regret that you have decided to take this action, because I am well aware of your value to the service. I have had an opportunity to observe your conduct of the important position you have held and I appreciate the very important results you have been able to accomplish."

Work in World War
"I especially wish to mention your success in directing the transportation of troops to Europe, a service of great magnitude in which you accomplished remarkable results."

General March was chief of artillery of the American Expeditionary Forces in France when the decision of President Wilson to assign General Bliss the chief of staff to the supreme war council necessitated selection of his successor.

General March was recalled to fill the post at the time when movement of American troops to France was in its initial stages. It was under his direction that troop movements were speeded up sharply only to be virtually doubled in speed later after the last great German offensive brought matters on the battle front to a crisis.

REORGANIZATION OF PROHIBITION FORCES PLANNED

Revision Will Eliminate Much of the Red Tape and Tighten the Lid on Liquor—It
Will Also Save Money Which is Important
—New Plan Will Centralize Authority

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 17.—Prohibition enforcement officials have completed a program for the reorganization of the federal enforcing units and revision of enforcement methods.

The suggested changes which include abolishment of about half of the supervisory jobs and the establishment of a system of state directors to be held responsible for enforcement and administrative work were submitted today by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes to Chairman Penrose and Senator Watson, Republican, Indiana, of the senate finance committee.

Sensors who studied the plans declared the changes would tighten the lid on liquor and would result in a saving in the money cost of enforcing the Volstead act. Mr. Haynes and Commissioner Blair of the bureau of internal revenue who had approved the program explained to the senators that they had sought to eliminate "red tape."

Mr. Haynes said it had been clearly demonstrated after a thorough trial, that the present plan of organization of the field force should be abandoned. He wanted, he said, a centralized authority, co-ordination in the handling of permissive and enforcement features and elimination of uncertainty, friction and confusion.

Mr. Haynes also proposed abolishment of the offices of supervising federal prohibition agents, "elimination of prohibition inspectors and the designating of all enforcing and administrative officers under the state directors as prohibition agents, transfer of offices of several of the directors to logical and accessible locations, creation of a mobile field force organized to operate directly under the federal commissioner and the consolidation of all records to avoid duplication and provide a closer check on tasks which may be sprung in the liquor supply."

HOUSE INSISTS ON REDUCTION OF THE ARMY BY OCTOBER 1

Refuses to Abide by Senate's Increased Appropriation

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Refusing to agree to the stand that the war department be given until May 1, next to reduce the size of the army to one hundred and fifty thousand enlisted men the house by a vote of 157 to 128 insisted today that the reduction must be carried into effect by October 1.

The house originally had voted seventy-two million and six hundred thousand dollars for maintenance of the army during the coming fiscal year with the understanding that steps would be taken to place the army immediately on a one hundred and fifty thousand basis.

The senate contended it would be impossible to cut the army, now approximately two hundred and twenty thousand men, to one hundred and fifty thousand before next spring and increased the item for pay of enlisted men to eighty-one million dollars to permit gradual reduction.

Representative Anthony. Kansas, proposed that the house offer to compromise at seven million dollars and the house adopted the proposal.

Unless the senate agrees to the house compromise the bill will go back to conference.

EXPRESS EMPLOYEES PROTEST REDUCTION

Chicago, June 17.—Vigorous protest against reduction of wages marked the defense of American Railway express employees today against the railroad labor board that the board's award of August, 1920, be abrogated. Union leaders declared the employees were receiving barely enough to live on and that they were entitled to even higher wages than at present. W. H. Oshon of Philadelphia told the board that the company's teamsters and chauffeurs whom he represented would regard a cut as unjustifiable.

an improper offer had been made by one of his appointees in the effort to influence legislation. The governor's message on this subject reads with no uncertain sound, and very forcibly sets forth the ideals he has with reference to public service and public affairs.

In southern Illinois recently a farmer at work in a field plowed up 50 sticks of dynamite. The field was not far from a city and the dynamite had been buried there. If this incident had happened three years ago everybody would have been positive that it was the work of alien enemies. Now the accepted theory is that bank robbers "planted" the explosive.

It's really unfortunate that there are active critics of the Harding administration and on the other hand friends who boast of what has been accomplished. It is much too early to make large claims for credit, and certainly the time to criticize has not arrived.

The aggressive and tenacious way in which federal agents follow up mail robbery cases and some other acts against the government inspires a wholesome respect for Uncle Sam. In general the feeling prevails that a man who trespasses a federal law is very likely to be punished.

Work that has been done on the Dearborn Street Station robbery in Chicago shows what can and will be done in the postal department. When the time comes that a similar aggressiveness is shown for the enforcement of the 18th amendment, the U. S. will really be dry.

In Decatur recently a contract was let for the paving of one street at an average cost of $3.75 per square yard. This price was considerably lower than has been asked for paving work in that city in recent years and indicates that construction costs are getting down to a figure more nearly normal.

THE SONS AND DAUGHTERS OF THE CITY.
In recent days regret has often been expressed because so many young men leave Jacksonville and go into business or professional activities in other cities. It is true that many young people leave Jacksonville, and it is worth while to remember that with passing years the city has made a large contribution to public life, educational work and business. So a city's accomplishments are not all at home, and there are scores of successful men scattered about the country who did the foundation work for that success right here in Jacksonville, and this city is entitled to the credit.

While of course a city's first interest is in itself, it must be willing and glad to make contributions to the worth while citizenship of other places in the world.

LOOKING TO JUDGE JONES FOR PARTY LEADERSHIP.
The State Journal is beginning early in speculating as to state candidates in 1921 and suggests Judge Norman Jones as a likely democratic nominee for the governorship. It is quite generally known that Judge Jones could easily have had the nomination in 1920 if he had so wished. But the prospects for election evidently didn't look promising to the popular jurist. Here is what the State Journal said yesterday: "Illinois has never had a Smith or Jones or Brown for governor. The indications are that the people are going to have an opportunity to vote for one of these familiar names."

Judge Norman L. Jones of this judicial circuit is seriously considered as the next Democratic candidate for the highest office in Illinois. Judge Jones received a very complimentary vote in the recent judicial election where he and his two conferees were unopposed. It was significant, however, that he received more votes than either of them.

"Judge Jones is gubernatorial timber, having youth, vigor, integrity, honesty, ability, all of proven quality. He is a central Illinoisan and Sangamon's neighbor. His nomination would please this section of the state which has confidence in him after knowing him well in responsible positions of trust."

FOURTH OF JULY PLANS ARE FORMING

Committee Arranging for Program at Lake Mauvaisterre—Picnic Will Be Big Feature of the Day.

The committee which is arranging for the Fourth of July program observing the completion of the city's filtration plant for conference last night. As previously stated, it has been the thought of the committee to have a big picnic event at Mauvaisterre lake, together with an informal program. Members of the committee, together with other citizens, believe that the completion of the water plant marks an epoch in the history of Jacksonville and that there should be some observance because of the existence of this plant, which in itself means so much to Jacksonville and further represents the possibilities which come thru midle effort.

The committee met last night with Carl Graubner presiding as chairman in the absence of W. L. Fay. The other members of the committee are, W. E. Boston, George Schmaiz, Dennis Schram, Dr. Harker and H. M. Capps. As part of the day's program a metal plate will be placed upon the power plant building setting forth that the building was erected because of co-operative action on the part of citizens of Jacksonville.

Late yesterday afternoon the members of the committee made an inspection trip to the plant on the Mauvaisterre lake property and were again impressed with the possibilities for a wonderful picnic there. Plans are being made for the construction of a temporary bridge, so that people may cross to the east side of the lake property, which is decidedly more picturesque and better for picnic purposes than the space on the west side.

The Chandlerville band has been engaged for the entire day, this arrangement having been made because it was not possible to secure the services of the Jacksonville organization. The home band is to play all day at the Jacksonville State hospital, the engagement having been made several months ago.

In the afternoon there will be a brief program of attractions and all the events of the day will be of a kind to make the occasion memorable. The sub-committee on finance are soliciting funds to meet the necessary expenses and the committee is expecting to get some additional funds from the concessions. Within a short time the committee will ask for bids on the concessions for the sale of refreshments and fireworks.

THE FOUNDERS OF SIGMA PI 1843-1921

By Ensley Moore.
They were HEROES!
Else had they not the thought! All of them lived for others; some of them offered their lives, others gave their lives!

What a record! What a record! What a record!
Newton Bateman, born in New Jersey, pioneer to Illinois, first had his thoughts turned to scholastic life by attending a Commencement at Illinois College. Poor, he lived on mush and milk in college. Poor, he made his study in a big hollow tree, thus forecasting his ability in projective planning.

Intending to be a minister, he acted as agent to secure means to enter Lane Seminary, succeeding in which, his health failed and he took up the rod of instruction which he never laid down.

Never, though he taught in St. Louis and St. Charles, Missouri; founded the West District School here. Established before a free school law; became Principal of Jacksonville Female Academy, almost at once being called by the State of Illinois to its Superintendent of Public Instruction—and chosen again and again—except in 1862, when treason brooked no loyalty—from 1858 until 1872. He upheld our state in knowledge, he developed its school laws and equipment, he carried his own name and that of Illinois not only among the scholars of our land, but those of Europe read him and published his works. He helped organize our State Teachers Association, established and edited "The Teacher," served on the Board of Education for years. All this was done amidst ill health, loss of friends, and at great pecuniary loss.

Lincoln turned to him for advice, during his first campaign for the Presidency, and Yates had his great loyalty in support. Lincoln called Bateman "the great little man," as Bateman was about as small in size as Lincoln was great in stature.

Illinois College had already furnished Knox College a President, but it was not until Bateman was called to the place that that really became a COLLEGE.

Illinois College made Mr. Bateman a Trustee, and gave him the degree of D. D. and Alumni made him their President for years, he led in church, in state, in school and paramountly the young, and full of honors was gathered to his fathers at a ripe old age, Oct. 21, 1897.

Dr. Wm. Javay, a founder of Phi Alpha society, said of Dr. Bateman, "he first launched the Phi Alpha society before the public by delivering an address for it, in 1846, at the old Baptist church."

Thos. K. Beecher, from Connecticut, on of the great Dr. Lyman Beecher, and brother of Edward and Henry Ward Beecher, was another of the Founders. He became pastor of a great church in Elmira, N. Y., and his people sent him to Europe. Mr. Beecher lived to good old age, pastor of that church for years.

Wm. E. Catlin born in Georgia, became a minister, here in Illinois, and spent his last years pioneering as a Home Missionary out in Montana.

Wm. C. Goudy became one of the greatest lawyers of Chicago, of Illinois and of the United States, and was considered by Mr. Cleveland for Chief Justice of the United States.

He was graduated from here in 1845, became District attorney and State Senator, was Democratic National Committeeman, and Chief Counsel of the great Chicago and Northwestern Railway. He was a leading Presbyterian and Trustee of McCormick Seminary, and of noted liberality, as he became a wealthy man. He was a Trustee of Illinois College, which gave him the degree of L. D. D. He lived elegantly, travelled much, visited Europe, coming home in the same cabin with the Chief Justice to be, Mr. Fuller, both of them being under consideration for the place.

Death came to Mr. Goudy suddenly, April 27, 1893.

George W. Harlan, of Kentucky, of the class of 1846, became a minister of the Presbyterian church at Cape Girardeau and Farmington, Missouri. He now resides at the latter place, and enjoys the honor of being the oldest living graduate from Illinois College, having almost reached his centennial.

Wm. Ireland, born in England, gave most of his life as a missionary in Africa, among the Zulus. He returned at length to this country, and filled out an honorable life history, some years ago.

Barbour Lewis, from Vermont, became a lawyer here, after his graduation in 1845, and a leading member of our Bar. In 1861, he led a company from here into the 1st Missouri (Union) cavalry, in which he became major. He settled in Memphis, Tenn., after the War, and in the great Yellow Fever Epidemic there during the '70's, so gave his services to the afflicted that he was elected a member of congress from there. He was afterwards made a Federal territorial judge in the West, went finally to Washington state, where he died about 1890.

Henry M. Lyons became a physician and surgeon, went to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was an assistant surgeon in the Union army, became eminent, wealthy and respected. He was a native of New York, but had his life work in the West.

John B. Shaw from Maine, was a member of the legislature and supt. of schools in Cass county. He went to Texas where he is said to have become prominent.

He was an editor of the Morgan Journal, here, for some time.

Joseph L. Thayer, from Chatham, first of all, when the little band could ill spare his genial face, and thoughtful words, was called away from this world.

Praise from one's friends is sweet, but from an opponent it is even sweeter. A bluff member of the other society used these words, tender as a girl's in speaking of Charles H. Tilton: "I cherish his uniform kindness to me, and love to think we were friends from the day we first met. When I think of him, I remember 'whom the Gods love, die young.' Charles H. Tilton was young, handsome, graceful, eloquent and true."

John Tilton of Illinois became a prominent lawyer of Quincy, went out to the War as Captain, returning as Brev. Brigadier General, was Pension Agent and Collector of Internal Revenue, and became an editorial proprietor of the Quincy Whig.

He was a man of fine literary tastes and abilities. He married a daughter of Governor and Colonel John Wood, and was a pleasant gentleman.

A great deal might be said of Samuel Willard, who, with Henry Wing, was one of the most active in organizing Sigma Pi Society. A prominent teacher and member of the State Teachers' Association, a medical doctor by profession and full surgeon in the War, principal of high schools in Springfield and Chicago, he "learned to labor and to wait." He was still a resident of Chicago, when he was called to go, a few years ago.

In his youth he was a "conductor" on the Underground railroad, out of this "station," and became quite noted as such.

Henry Wing, born in Missouri, was graduated in 1844, and also studied in the Medical School of Illinois College. He was afterwards a professor in that department, and in the same in a Chicago Medical College. Gov. Yates, in 1861 appointed him a member of the State Board of Examining Surgeons.

A gentleman well qualified to judge, said of Dr. Wing: "His was the loftiest intellect I ever knew in connection with Illinois College."

While he attained unusual experience, success and eminence in his profession, his literary life, and on the platform Wing's abilities shone forth resplendently. Altho he lived at the little town of Collinsville, his writing upon medical and philanthropic subjects attracted much attention in the state, and in the East. Thruout life, Dr. Wing was harassed by ill health, and only by will power was he enabled to keep up to his work. But there he did keep, from the time of inaugurating our Society, until, in February, 1870, this good physician was called to a Christian's Rest.

Our noble Founders, in these too brief words, are sketched, little, but what they did for us calls for grateful reverence and earnest emulation.

VISIT IN LITERBERRY

Mrs. Fred Henderson and son of Woodson are spending a few days with J. A. Henderson and family in Literberry.

STATEMENT IS MADE ABOUT THE Y. M. C. A.

President Rogers in Letter Tells Something of Work and Needs.

A number of business men working in the campaign for the Y. M. C. A. met for luncheon at the Peacock Inn Friday when reports from teams were made. A number of subscriptions were reported but several of the teams were not ready for reports as the members had been delayed in beginning their work. Recently the following letter was sent to friends of the association by H. J. Rodgers, president, in which the general facts concerning the campaign and the need are told in a pointed way:

Dear Friend:
One of the boys who graduated from the High school with honors this year, speaking to the local secretary of the Y. M. C. A. said: "It is because you stood by me and convinced me that I should finish that I have done this." Many such instances pass unannounced but they are, after all, the services which mould the lives of boys and young men.

Recently the Chamber of Commerce asked the High school students what were the greatest needs in Jacksonville. The three highest answers were: 225 for improved streets, 210 for a new Y. M. C. A. building, 185 for a Y. W. C. A. This shows the sentiment of this important group of our citizens.

We all recognize that now is not the time, however, to raise the money for such a building, but the organization must be preserved and the work with the boys kept going. The citizens of Morgan county have also for years supported the advisory and counselling work of the state and international Associations and the Association College which is training men for Y. M. C. A. work.

Within a few days you will be asked to help support this work for the current year ending April 30, 1922. The board has planned carefully and will need $3,200.00 so that no further requests need to be made for Y. M. C. A. current expense this year. This does not ask a heavy sum from anyone but does need the loyal help of all.

Thanking you for your generous faith in and support of the Y. M. C. A. and with full confidence in your co-operation in maintaining this service with our boys and looking to a larger work ahead we are,

Yours sincerely,
H. J. Rogers, Pres.

'Diamonds Adrift'

Bob Bellamy is the genial and altogether likeable young man who has not taken the trouble to think of making his own way in the world, his father being a wealthy ship owner. James Bellamy allows his son $200 a month, and is inclined to let him play for awhile after being graduated from the university. When Bob runs up $5,000 in bills, however, besides spending the allowance, the elder Bellamy calls a halt, stops the allowance and sends Bob to sea as supercargo on the steamer Alexander at $50 a month, telling him he must pay the $5,000 before he can have any further consideration. Then enters upon the scene the cat with the $30,000 diamond bracelet—Did Bob pay the $5,000? You must see the picture. The answer will surprise you.

LEONARD WANTS TO SEE FIGHT

Would Rather See Dempsey and Carpenter Than to Get $15,000 for Thirty-five Minutes' Work.

Benton, Harbor, Mich. — Benny Leonard, world champion lightweight fighter, would rather see the Dempsey-Carpenter fight than make $15,000 for thirty-five minutes' work, but Benny's manager, Billy Gibson, has decreed otherwise. So, Leonard, instead of watching the fight, will do some fighting himself — more than a thousand miles from the heavyweight clash, however.

Leonard will fight Sailor Freedman of Chicago here July 4 and will arrive two weeks earlier to begin training.

In a letter to a friend, Leonard says:

"I had my heart set on seeing Dempsey and Carpenter, but Billy—who is both pal and manager to me—thought I'd better go west and box this Freedman fellow. I don't care about the $15,000—what's that in my young life?—but Billy doesn't want to give any of a chance to say I'm doing it, so the Freedman fight for me."

"Incidentally, Billy I don't know much about this Freedman boy. I'm not going to take a chance like I did with Charley White. I'm going to be in condition this time, and the fight won't last long if I have my way."

Promoter Floyd Fitzsimmons is gambling to the extent of $35,000 on the Leonard-Freedman fight, which comes two days after the heavyweight title clash. Leonard has been guaranteed $15,000 and Freedman's guarantee, with taxes and expenses will bring the total expenditures to about $35,000.

The arena where the fight will be held will seat 20,000 and the prices will range from $3 to $15.

LEAVE FOR COLORADO

Sterling will leave today for Glenwood Springs, Colo., where they will take a special course of study at Glenwood school. They will return in the fall to resume their school duties in various localities.

REPORT DISCOVERY OF GENERAL ANESTHETIC

War Department Believes Great Step Forward Has Been Made for Field Operations.

Columbus, O.—The United States government, through the office of the Surgeon General of the war department, has presented to the National Anaesthesia Research society, whose headquarters are in this city, an opportunity for what members consider is probably the greatest service that has come to it since its organization.

The war department, because of the comment made about the use of a mixture of ether, ethyl chloride and chloroform in field operations in the A. E. F., and because this department is making researches in anaesthesia pertaining to such operations, has asked the National Research society to take up the subject, and submit the data to the surgeon general.

The war department believes a general anaesthetic can be developed which will produce complete anaesthesia within a few seconds and still have all the advantages of ether. On the basis of the recent field experience, and the severe comment aroused by the use of the above mentioned mixture, the government is asking the Research society the following five questions:

"Is there a need for an anaesthetic of quicker action and more lasting qualities than the mixture employed in the A. E. F. operations? To what extent was Nitrous oxide oxygen anaesthesia or any modification thereof used in the A. E. F. in France? If the nitrous oxide oxygen method reasonably safe, practicable, rapid and economical? Is there a combination that would better meet the need of such an anaesthetic, if the need exists? Should the suggestion be experimented with further, and if so, within what agency."

LETTER FROM R. P. JOY

R. P. Joy, whose home in "Stronghold", Arizona, was recently described in the Journal wrote his sons here a letter and from it the Journal is permitted to make some extracts:

Dear Sons:

I have just returned from a two days' trip down the valley to the Huachuca (Wa-chu-ca) via Pearce, Courtland, Gleason, Tombstone, Ft. Huachuca, Jack's Place, Carr Canyon, Hereford, Bisbee, Douglas and various other points. Our principal object was to see Carr Canyon and Mr. Beiderman who is an expert in walnut growing and grafting. There were four of us, Mr. Tension and Mr. Gibson of the state university, James Shaw, my son-in-law and myself. On our way we crossed the San Pedro river where I saw the first running water I had seen in the state and it seemed to be real, damp liquid. A project is on foot to erect a dam there to furnish irrigation for contiguous territory.

We visited Jack's place, kept by an eccentric old man who lives alone, has quite a pretentious place of business where he sells almost everything needed by the people about the region and has in addition an ornamental dance hall which he rents for so much a night and when there is anything going on there are many in attendance.

We reached Mr. Beiderman's place about noon. Mr. Beiderman is a peculiar gentleman. Lives alone, is an eminent scientist and biologist, reads a great deal and is wonderfully competent in his line of research especially in his line of English walnut grafting on the stems of the native wild walnut trees of this region.

We stayed all night with a family named Todd, the father of whom was a soldier in the Indian wars and had many interesting reminiscences to relate. We visited Bisbee which is a place between two mountains with a space between wide enough for a street and a little more, the main part of the town being up the sides of the mountains. There are immense deposits of copper ore waiting for a better market when the mines will be opened and ore taken from them.

A rain fell which filled the gutters and attracted numerous children. We arrived home in due time well pleased with our trip.

RETURN TO CHICAGO

Mrs. Paul Alexander and daughter, Miss Grace Alexander, arrived home Thursday morning from Evanston, Illinois. Miss Alexander received the Degree of Bachelor of Arts from Northwestern University on Wednesday and Mrs. Alexander has been attending the various festivities of commencement week with her daughter.

Daily Market Report

PRICE OF WHEAT

MAKES ADVANCE
CHICAGO, June 17.—Torrill wheat did a good deal today to make wheat prices advance. Closing prices were unsettled 2 1/2 to 3¢ higher, with July $1.31 1/2 to $1.31 3/4 and Sept. $1.24 1/2 to $1.24 3/4; corn finished 2 1/2 to 2 3/4 up and oats gained 1 1/2 to 1 3/4. In provisions the outcome was unchanged to 2¢ higher.

Apprehension as to the effect of hot weather on wheat had relation to the spring crop and was intensified by forecasts that abnormally high temperatures would continue several days. Another bullish influence was the knowledge that first threshings in the last half of the season showed disappointing returns. Assertions that 750,000 bushels had been bought for export by way of the Gulf of Mexico tended also to lift values. Offerings were light until the market had jumped as much as 5¢ a bushel. At that level, houses with eastern connections became free sellers and reactions ensued. On the breaks demand broadened out, with July delivery displaying particular strength at the close. Bull leaders predicted there would be no material accumulation of stocks during July.

Strength in corn was largely due to possibilities of a drought scare. Oats were affected by reports of crop deterioration.

Dullness prevailed in the provision trade and hindered the market from sympathizing much with upturns in the value of grain and hogs.

NEW LOW RECORD ON STOCK MARKET
NEW YORK, June 17.—New low records from one to six years were established today in every important division of the list as liquidation and short selling continued to force down prices in the stock exchange.

Some steadiness was manifested at the outset on short covering in Louisville & Nashville induced by the proposed stock dividend. This was neutralized by weakness of Crucible Steel which forfeited nearly three points on an overnight dividend cut. Rallies in speculative favorites failed to hold when U. S. Steel fell 1 1/2 points to 7 1/4 their low record since 1915.

All rails encountered a setback in the last half of the session. Chesapeake and Ohio falling four points on further postponement of dividend action.

The once encouraging feature was the plethora of call money at 5 1/2 per cent. Of the exchange such accommodations were offered at four and a half per cent. All foreign exchanges strengthened.

Liberty bonds were mainly lower.

ILLINOIS DELEGATES AT T. P. A. CONVENTION

This State is Largely Represented at National Gathering Held in Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., June 17, '21. It will be of great interest to the Jacksonville travelling men, of whom there are scores, to know something of what is being done at the National Convention of the T. P. A. here, and especially the part Illinois is taking in the proceedings. The convention opened in attendance, 52 of whom are from Illinois. This state having the second or third largest delegation in attendance.

The Illinois delegation is quartered at the Louisville Old Inn Hotel. Every morning during the convention the delegation holds a roll call and caucus in the assembly room of the hotel, in order to keep the members in line and see that they attend all business sessions of the convention, on penalty of having their expense accounts cut off.

H. B. Ramey of Champaign occupied a conspicuous place in the convention work of Tuesday morning, when as member of the national board of directors he made his report on membership, one of the most gratifying in the whole week's membership, the total membership on May 31 being 101,050. The new applications accepted in 1920, with one exception were taken in. The Illinois membership reports showed 1,135 new applications accepted during the year, making the present membership of the state 7,376. Illinois now stands fifth in total membership, the states of Indiana, Missouri, Texas and Pennsylvania having larger totals. President White paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Ramey's work for the year on the national membership committee.

One of the high spots in the business of the convention was its action on the question of railroad rates. The chairman of the four railroad committees were heard, giving the history of the efforts made by the national officers and committees to secure from the railroad traffic manager a concession in the way of selling mileage books of 3,000 to 5,000 miles for a reduction of 20 per cent under regular rates. The roads finally and flatly refused to consider such a proposition. Then the T. P. A. national officers and committees took the matter to congress and there are now pending two bills, the Watson bill in the senate and the Kahn bill in the house, compelling the roads of the country to sell mileage books at above proposed. The convention urged every individual travelling man to write to his congressman and senator urging support of these two bills in senate or house.

The report of National Secretary T. S. Logan abounded with facts of interest to all T. P. A.'s. He showed total receipts for the year to be $859,547.46 which with the balance of $583,965.44 at the beginning of the year were $777,143.68, leaving a balance on April 30th this year of $766,369.22. The total number of claims paid during the year were 46,563, amounting in all to $6,307,097.32. Of these there were 587 death claims of the total amount of $2,183,051.00. There were 44 claims for loss of eye, 39 for foot and leg, 27 for hand and arm, 3 for four fingers and 46,873 claims for weekly indemnity for injuries. The cost to the membership per capita for the claims paid during the year was $5.38 for 1921 as compared with $5.11 for the year 1920.

The entertainment feature of the convention are very fine, being planned on the line of typical Kentucky hospitality. There was a big parade Monday in which 1500 men marched in spite of the extreme heat. Each delegate received a full size suit case filled with Kentucky products. Tuesday afternoon there was an auto ride for all delegates and their wives, in which Louisville's wonderful park system was visited. A grand ball was given on Monday night and Tuesday night a great concert. Entertainments at amusement parks and one whole day's trip with a Kentucky barbecue at its end are also on the program.

Two chief candidates for president are being boosted, they being E. A. Hartman of Indiana and William O'Neill of Denver. The Illinois delegation is in part as follows: Quincy: C. L. Martin, J. J. Moriarty, Geo. L. Kline, L. A. Morast. Springfield: E. S. Jones, T. J. Daugherty, W. A. Campbell, L. A. Minter. Peoria: W. A. McCullough, H. M. Brown, W. L. Steer, E. P. Mitchell, J. F. Grey, A. W. Archdale, B. C. Callahan, P. P. Lewis, George Breier. Cairo: William Grinstead. Decatur: H. V. Ground, C. D. Saunders. Bloomington: C. E. Dagenhart, Henry Florence, J. H. Kazar, Henry Hostetler, O. E. Bishop. Jacksonville: C. F. Ehne. Champaign: C. N. Flanigan, T. E. Hughes, A. C. Dollinger. Danville: A. B. Hepburn, W. A. Snurr. Mattoon: J. F. Rapp. Pana: William Burkhardt. In addition to list of delegates, the state president, Roy O. Potts of Pana, and the state secretary, W. E. Gape of Peoria, and the state press chairman, J. L. Hasbrouck of Bloomington, are in attendance. The Illinois delegation enjoyed a little get-together dinner of their own at the Waterson hotel on Wednesday evening. Some of the national officers were guests.

BUSINESS CONDITIONS GROWING BETTER

Frank Elliott, Chicago Banker, Discusses Some Difficulties in Financial Situation Before the Rotary Club—Takes Optimistic View of Future.

At the weekly luncheon of the Rotary club at the Pacific hotel Friday, Frank Elliott, vice president of the Harris Trust & Savings bank, Chicago, made a short address on the financial situation. P. L. Barber, head of a theatrical booking agency of St. Louis, spoke briefly as did C. F. Hayley, the latter known as "California Frank." Col. Hayley explained something about the round up of cowboy sports which it is possible may be presented in Jacksonville under the auspices of the merchants.

Other guests of the day were Grant Graff and McClure Capps. Secy. Kopperl read a cablegram from Vincent Riley, club delegate to the Edinburgh convention, extending his greetings and making mention that the next international convention will be held in California.

Mr. Elliott was present as a guest of C. A. Johnson and referred briefly to his initial work in banking at the Elliott State bank here. Mr. Elliott has been located in Chicago for eighteen or twenty years and today as vice president of the Harris State Bank & Trust Co., occupies a position of large importance in the financial world of Chicago.

Notes Improvement Here.
The speaker mentioned his pleasure in spending a week or two in Jacksonville and said that it was a fine thing to see a completed water system together with other betterments, and possibly above all, the fine spirit of citizens in working together. He expressed the belief that citizens who put interest, labor and money into community enterprises really accomplish greater things for themselves than if they put those things merely into their own private business.

Talking about the future and business, Mr. Elliott said: "It is a very dangerous thing to prophesy about business conditions for time brings so many changes and is so fraught with uncertainty. We have been passing through a period of readjustment, of deflation, of losses, which was inevitable after such a business period. The farmer found the big value taken out of his crops almost overnight and his losses have been heavy. But the losses have by no means been confined to the farmer. The business concern that has distributed all the profits from its business in the last two or three years instead of building up a reserve fund for the inevitable deflation period, is in hard lines indeed. Only the strong ones will survive and others must be swept away."

"There are indications that the period of readjustment has moved along so rapidly that the days of normalcy are not many months in the future. We do not look for what is known as easy money for the remainder of this year, but the chances are that next year will see easier conditions and that it will be possible to secure short time loans at somewhat lower rates. However, the conditions of 1914 are not expected to return. One thing that will tend to make money conditions easier in Illinois, Iowa and some nearby states will be the rapid movement of small grain to the markets. It is probable that the movement will be more rapid than usual this year and the funds resulting will come as a great relief to the smaller banking institutions who are now borrowing from the larger city banks to carry their merchant and farmer customers."

Tax Question Very Important.
Mr. Elliott then said that he believed the tax question was one which should have the attention of congress even before the tariff question. He suggested that the uncertainty as to the amount to be collected for excess profits tax has resulted in the consumer being called upon to pay excessively high prices. It is only following a natural course for those engaged in business to fix prices which they feel sure will take care of the excess profits that may be charged against them. The revision of tax laws and making certain as to just what taxes a business man must pay will have a leveling and steadying effect on business."

Mr. Elliott said that one factor which must be taken into account in the consideration of business and financial conditions of the country is that for the first time in history the U. S. is a creditor nation instead of a debtor. It is going to take some time for business interests to understand this situation and to make the necessary readjustments. He said that on this subject Thomas Lamont of J. P. Morgan & Co. had written an article in a recent issue of Harper's which stresses the question in a very informing way.

It is Mr. Lamont's view that because of this new condition that the old policy of tariff for protection purposes must be somewhat revised. That financier says that with the U. S. a creditor nation, the only course left is to make such prices that the foreign countries can buy in our markets. He believes that the time must eventually come when tariff restrictions will be practically without force and each country produce those things for which it is best adapted and which can be produced there at the lower prices. Still other matters having relationship to world business and finances were suggested by the speaker and the members of the club were not only greatly interested in the statements made but gratified also to find that Mr. Elliott has an optimistic view

Frank Elliott, Chicago Banker, Discusses Some Difficulties in Financial Situation Before the Rotary Club—Takes Optimistic View of Future.

At the weekly luncheon of the Rotary club at the Pacific hotel Friday, Frank Elliott, vice president of the Harris Trust & Savings bank, Chicago, made a short address on the financial situation. P. L. Barber, head of a theatrical booking agency of St. Louis, spoke briefly as did C. F. Hayley, the latter known as "California Frank." Col. Hayley explained something about the round up of cowboy sports which it is possible may be presented in Jacksonville under the auspices of the merchants.

Other guests of the day were Grant Graff and McClure Capps. Secy. Kopperl read a cablegram from Vincent Riley, club delegate to the Edinburgh convention, extending his greetings and making mention that the next international convention will be held in California.

Mr. Elliott was present as a guest of C. A. Johnson and referred briefly to his initial work in banking at the Elliott State bank here. Mr. Elliott has been located in Chicago for eighteen or twenty years and today as vice president of the Harris State Bank & Trust Co., occupies a position of large importance in the financial world of Chicago.

Notes Improvement Here.
The speaker mentioned his pleasure in spending a week or two in Jacksonville and said that it was a fine thing to see a completed water system together with other betterments, and possibly above all, the fine spirit of citizens in working together. He expressed the belief that citizens who put interest, labor and money into community enterprises really accomplish greater things for themselves than if they put those things merely into their own private business.

Talking about the future and business, Mr. Elliott said: "It is a very dangerous thing to prophesy about business conditions for time brings so many changes and is so fraught with uncertainty. We have been passing through a period of readjustment, of deflation, of losses, which was inevitable after such a business period. The farmer found the big value taken out of his crops almost overnight and his losses have been heavy. But the losses have by no means been confined to the farmer. The business concern that has distributed all the profits from its business in the last two or three years instead of building up a reserve fund for the inevitable deflation period, is in hard lines indeed. Only the strong ones will survive and others must be swept away."

"There are indications that the period of readjustment has moved along so rapidly that the days of normalcy are not many months in the future. We do not look for what is known as easy money for the remainder of this year, but the chances are that next year will see easier conditions and that it will be possible to secure short time loans at somewhat lower rates.
